

Image Publication Policy

I hereby grant Guardian Europe S.à.r.l, with its registered office at 19 rue du Puits Romain 8070 Bertrange, Luxembourg, and its corporate affiliates and subsidiaries, and each of their respective officers, agents, representative, employees or designees, hereafter referred to as Guardian, permission to process and distribute my image recorded in any manner during the event celebrating the 20th anniversary of Guardian Glass in Częstochowa, on 12 January 2022, for the purposes of promoting/advertising the Guardian company free of charge, without restrictions as to the form of representation, number of copies, media of its use, place and time of publication, commentary or juxtaposition with other images or materials in all fields of exploitation, in particular:

- a) fixing or reproducing by any technique, including digitally (in any system and on any medium), in particular in the form of photographs and film recordings,
- b) inputting to computer memory and to a computer or multimedia network,
- c) making it available to the public in any way that is accessible to the public (including, but not limited to, making it available on the Internet – in particular on a website and on social media, at shows, on large screens, in press publications and as part of any telecommunications services),
- d) changing, modifying the image by means of digital processing,
- e) granting permission to other Guardian-related entities, including regional, national and global publications and television broadcasters to further distribute my image.

This consent also includes the juxtaposition of my image with other images, the processing of the image and the possibility of commenting on the image. Consent shall apply only to the aforementioned purposes and shall not be used to pursue any illegal or immoral purposes.

Please let us know if you don't want to appear in our marketing materials by submitting the following form.